BEFORE the Select Circulating Libra-ry had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting-that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communicaion and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the propriefor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments. More extended experience has shown o her desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the 'Library' a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Maguziniana, interspersed with the Reviews from the English the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, an act for the re-Quarterlies.
